

Our Do Not Call program is working. I would say that we get 95% fewer calls. I wouldn't change it - it works. If I want to be solicited from someone, I'll let them know. Too bad about the telemarketers but let them all get "real jobs"! If corporations spent more money on customer service than on marketing, what a beautiful world this would be!